

Name: _____ 12.2.1 Lesson 9 Date: _____ Per: _____

Aim: To what extent do Thoreau’s claims develop a central idea established earlier in the text?

Do now: Combine the following sentences to create one sentence.

Thoreau feels that slavery is wrong.

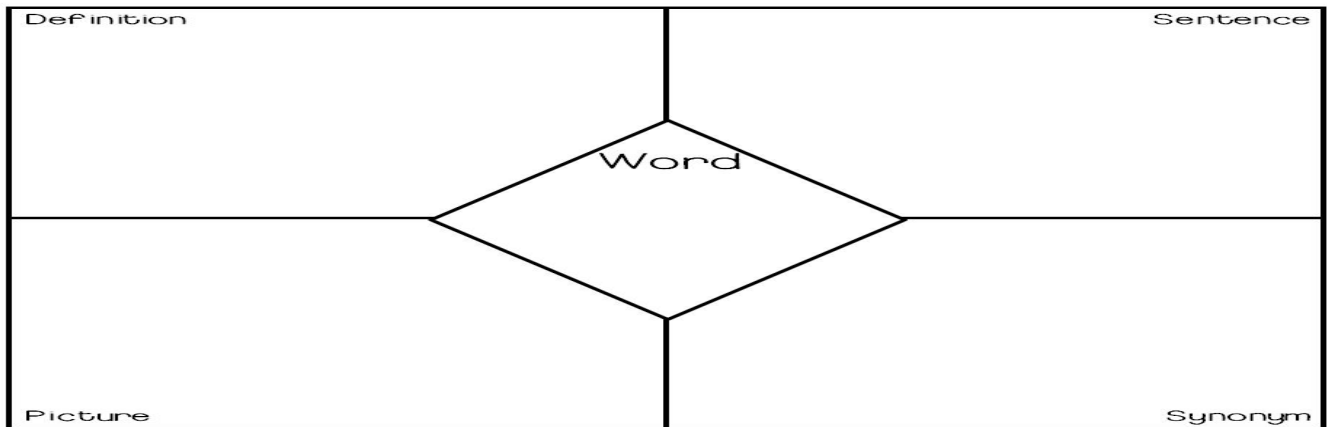

Thoreau feels that America’s invasion of Mexico is wrong.

Thoreau feels that citizens have a responsibility to challenge a government if they feel it’s actions are wrong.

Sentence Combination: _____

Vocabulary
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● leaven (v.) – modify or lighten● countenance (n.) – approval or favor● prices-current (n.) – a price list; the price for which goods usually sell in the market● virtue (n.) – morally good behavior or character● esteeming (v.) – thinking very highly or favorably of● backgammon (n.) – a board game for two players in which the players throw dice and try to move all of their pieces around and off the board

Choose one of the vocabulary words and complete the Marzano:

© 2014 Ann Faehnrich Devoted to Vocabulary Development

Team “Rage”: Focus on paragraph 10 to answer the following 3 questions:

