

AP English Literary Terms Quiz schedule:

Quiz #1: Drama: act, antagonist, aside, catastrophe, catharsis, character (dynamic, flat, round, static, stock) climax, comedy, comic relief, conflict,

Quiz #2: crisis, denouement, dues ex machine, epilogue, exposition, falling action, farce, foil, hamartia, hero,

Quiz #3: hubris, monologue, prologue, protagonist, rising action, scene, soliloquy, tragedy, tragic flaw, villain

Quiz #4: Poetry: alliteration, assonance, blank verse, cacophony, cadence, caesura, conceit, connotation, consonance, controlling image,

Quiz #5: couplet, dirge, dissonance, dramatic monologue, elegy, end-stopped line, enjambment, epic, euphony,

Quiz #6: foot, free verse, iamb, image, imagery, in medias res, lyric, measure, meter, octave,

Quiz #7: ode, pentameter, persona, quatrain, refrain, repetition, rhyme (end, external, feminine, internal, masculine) scansion, sestet, sonnet (English, Italian),

Quiz #8: stanza, stress, trochee, volta

Syntax: antithesis, balanced sentence, coherence, complex sentence, compound-complex, ellipsis,

Quiz #9: inverted sentence, loose sentence.

Elements of Style: atmosphere, colloquial, connotation, denotation, dialect, dialogue, diction, epigram,

Quiz #10: invective, inversion, irony (dramatic, situation, verbal), mood, paradox, proverb, pun, sarcasm, satire, slang,

Quiz #11: tone, voice

Fiction: anecdote, anticlimax, character, flashback, incident, motivation, narrative voice, point of view (first person, objective, omniscient, limited, third person, unlimited),

Quiz #12: stream-of-consciousness, subplot, theme

Figures of Speech: allusion, apostrophe, euphemism, hyperbole, litotes, metaphor, onomatopoeia,

Quiz #13: personification, simile, symbol, synecdoche, understatement

Form: allegory, anecdote, diary, discourse (argumentation, description, exposition, narration),

Quiz #14: essay (formal, humorous, informal), fable, genre, novel, novella, parable, prose, verse

Literary Terms:

Drama:

act, antagonist, aside, catastrophe, catharsis, character (dynamic, flat, round, static, stock) climax, comedy, comic relief, conflict, crisis, denouement, dues ex machine, epilogue, exposition, falling action, farce, foil, hamartia, hero, hubris, monologue, prologue, protagonist, rising action, scene, soliloquy, tragedy, tragic flaw, villain

Poetry:

alliteration, assonance, blank verse, cacophony, cadence, caesura, conceit, connotation, consonance, controlling image, couplet, dirge, dissonance, dramatic monologue, elegy, end-stopped line, enjambment, epic, euphony, foot, free verse, iamb, image, imagery, in medias res, lyric, measure, meter, octave, ode, pentameter, persona, quatrain, refrain, repetition, rhyme (end, external, feminine, internal, masculine) scansion, sestet, sonnet (English, Italian), stanza, stress, trochee, volta

Syntax:

antithesis, balanced sentence, coherence, complex sentence, compound-complex, ellipsis, inverted sentence, loose sentence.

Elements of Style:

atmosphere, colloquial, connotation, denotation, dialect, dialogue, diction, epigram, invective, inversion, irony (dramatic, situation, verbal), mood, paradox, proverb, pun, sarcasm, satire, slang, tone, voice

Fiction:

anecdote, anticlimax, character, flashback, incident, motivation, narrative voice, point of view (first person, objective, omniscient, limited, third person, unlimited), stream-of-consciousness, subplot, theme

Figures of Speech:

allusion, apostrophe, euphemism, hyperbole, litotes, metaphor, onomatopoeia, personification, simile, symbol, synecdoche, understatement

Form:

allegory, anecdote, diary, discourse (argumentation, description, exposition, narration), essay (formal, humorous, informal), fable, genre, novel, novella, parable, prose, verse